Ann-Kristin Achleitner/Reinhard Pöllath/Erwin Stahl (Editors)
The Financing of Social Enterprises
Concepts for the financial support of social entrepreneurs
In the series: Handelsblatt-Bücher
Approx. 260 pp., hardbound
Approx. EUR 79.95
ISBN 978-3-7910-2631-2
July 2007

Financing

Nobel Peace Price Winner Muhammed Junus and the Grameen Bank prove that... social entrepreneurialship is profitable. But how can capital investment for charitable objectives bear fruit in our country? This book provides the first systematic overview of the various financing options, including from the perspective of foundations, venture philanthropy funds, social venture capital funds, individual contributors and financial intermediaries. Includes financing examples and sample contracts.

About the Authors:
Dr. Dr. Ann-Kristin Achleinter, Professor at the Center for Entrepreneurial and Financial Studies at the Technical University of Munich; Dr. Reinhard Pöllath, P + P Pöllath & Partner lawyers and tax advisors Munich, Frankfurt, Berlin; Dr. Erwin Stahl, BonVenture management GmbH, Munich.

Intended Audience:
Investment consultants and managers; employees of venture capital funds, investment funds, family foundations, other private investors and churches; economic jurists, economic journalists, scholars involved in the area of entrepreneurial finance and the sector

Key Features:
- Financing guidelines for social entrepreneurs
- Includes case studies with financing examples from ′Dialog im Dunkeln′ (dialogue in the dark), foodwatch, MyHandicap.com and JobTV